At 7:00 AM this morning Placer County Sheriff deputies, along with officers from Roseville PD, Nevada County Sheriff's Office, Concord PD and the Sacramento Valley High Tech Task Force, executed three search warrants at three different residences in the City of Concord. This was in response to information developed during the investigation of three recent burglaries of a golf shop in North Auburn. During this investigation deputies were able to establish the two suspects were probably responsible for over 30 burglaries of golf shops and golf courses over the past several years. These burglaries occurred in numerous locations; including, Sparks, Nevada, Nevada and Placer counties, Napa, Folsom, Sacramento, Solano County, Concord, Fairfield, Davis, and Rohnert Park. Each of these burglaries had an average loss of over $10,000 each.

The suspects were not home when investigators arrived to serve the search warrants but arrived home during the search and were arrested on a variety of charges. Both suspects are expected to be booked into the Placer County Jail later today. Additional suspects are outstanding, and their arrests should take place soon.
